

DISCOVER - LEARN - SHARE KNOWLEDGE - NETWORK
TOGETHER WITH A UNIQUE GROUP OF
15 TRAINERS FROM 11 DEVELOPING COUNTRIES
(Asia, Africa, South America)

How to train and learn more effectively and affectively?

Thursday 13 May 2004 - 9:30 am - 6:00 pm
De Centrale, Kraankinderstraat 2 GENT (Belgium)

Discover and learn from other cultures:

How to write good courses?
How to train people so that learning is more effective?
What is the use of training more affectively?
How to create effective and affective learning environments?
How to balance the three H's (head, hands, heart)?
When and how to use creative methods?
How to implement e-learning under difficult conditions?

15 highly qualified trainers from Asia, Africa and South America spent three months in Belgium for a postgraduate on Effective Learning Environments organised by WES (<http://www.wes.be>)
They are responsible for training programmes in their country and have a lot of experience. They want to share their knowledge and experiences with you.
